MOTIVATING EDUCATORS AND ADMINISTRATORS SERIES

The Best of Wavelength, Parts 1, 2, 3

"Highly Recommended. The live theater format lampoons educators and satirizes their behavior. Appropriate as 'ice breakers' or discussion starters, the series offers a humorous approach which facilitates discussion of key issues."

-CA ITC

"Wavelength" is a popular non-profit professional theater organization that travels across America presenting humorous, and very motivating, live presentations to educators and administrators on important educational issues.
